Dear Librarian:

Due to the fact that your library has valuable copies of the 18th century text-books and other writings -- as shown by the L of C Union Catalog -- by the Rev. Caleb Alexander (1755-1828), the attached card analysis of a paper concerning them by J.F.Latimer, as well as the added reference to the 1949 Proceedings of the American Philological Association, may be of use for your catalog.

If you do not have the proceedings mentioned, you may wish to obtain a copy of the reprint from the author or from the American Philological Ass'n., Phila., Pa.

Yours sincerely,
Carew Sheldon, PE

ANSWER TO WILSON QUERY

(MARCH 15, 1945)

Your Noah Wilson, Jr. of Torrington, Conn. gives you entry into DAR. He was brother to my ancestor, Captain Abijah Wilson whose daughter Aurel born Jan. 5, 1777 in 1795 married Nathaniel Bacon and soon afterward removed to Fabius, N. Y. Your line, Capt. Noah (4) Wilson Sr., Dea. John (3), Samuel (2) (obert (7). Allied families, Cook, Drake, Marshall, Griffin, Stebbins. Would refer you to Orcutt's History of Torrington and to Stille's Ancient Windsor.
