Given to Mrs. Ovid Miner

Photograph of team 6x8", (very good - smooth, full face)

Ovid Miner, a Congregational Clergyman, whose exertions in civil and religious liberty entitle him to the grateful regards of his countrymen, was born in Middletown Vt. July 7, 1803; and died in Syracuse, N. Y. Dec. 20, 1891.

He preached his first sermon from the pulpit of the Baptist Ch. in Ithaca, N. Y. April 28, 1833. His text was from James 5, 16: and his last sermon at the Geddes M. E. Mission N. Y. Dec. 1890, about a year before his death.

This little offering, or memorial is made up of kind words of sympathy and tributes of respect from different friends of the family. It is the compilation of a few truthful reminiscences and incidents of his life, which some have desired to have published. his wife Eliza Moore
